

TLI42422 Certificate IV in Rail Safety Management

This course has been designed to provide an in depth view the requirements rail safety legislation, the components of a Safety Management System and how to achieve compliance for operations.

Course Information

TLI42422 Certificate IV in Rail Safety Management is aimed at Rail Safety Managers, Safety Advisors, Operations Managers, Supervisors, Work Group Leaders and those with responsibility to ensure the safety and compliance of rail operations and assets within their organisation.

COURSE DELIVERY

This course consists of a total of 7 days of face-to-face classroom training, along with scheduled touchpoints with our trainers. Learners will also complete workplace projects. The course can be delivered at Railtrain's facilities or on client worksites, with online learning options available.

COURSE INCLUSIONS

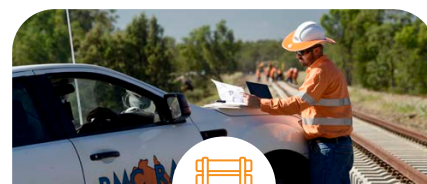

Learn from our team of industry experts and gain knowledge and practical application in:

- Rail Safety and Safety legislation, standards and obligations for organisations
- In-depth understanding of the principles of a Safety Management System and guidance on developing and maintaining the system
- Communication and leadership skills for engaging stakeholders to develop, input, implement and review the Safety Management System.
- Rail safety and safety investigation and reporting obligations
- Risk management strategies for addressing both high-level business and worksite risks
- Fit for work obligations including fatigue, rail safety worker competence and alcohol and other drugs
- Change management process and continual improvement.

THE FOLLOWING TOPICS WILL BE COVERED:

- BSBOPS403 Apply Business Risk management Processes
- TLIE4030 Prepare Rail Safety Reports
- TLIF0043 Implement Fitness for Work Procedures
- TLIF0048 Manage Rail Safety Compliance
- TLIF0054 Respond to Notifiable Rail Safety Occurrences
- TLIL0027 Ensure Competency of Rail Safety Workers

- TLIG0002 Lead a Work Team
- TLIF4104 Manage Change in the Rail Safety Environment
- BSBSTR402 Implement Continuous Improvement
- BSBWHS415 Contribute to Implementing WHS Management Systems

RAILTRAIN is a national Registered Training Organisation that delivers training services exclusively for the rail industry.

A nationally recognised qualification TLI42422 Certificate IV in Rail Safety Management will be issued to all participants who successfully complete all qualification requirements.

Call (08) 9470 4999 or email training@railtrain.com.au to find out more information.